

Weekday Worshipper
Published 01/2006
Christopher Dale
author@candp-ent.com
<http://author.candp-ent.com/>

This work is copyrighted. No part may be reproduced by any process without prior written permission from Christopher Dale, unless grants have been clearly granted. Requests and inquiries concerning reproduction, publications and rights should be addressed to Christopher Dale.

Acts 5:42 (KJV) And daily in the temple, and in every house, they ceased not to teach and preach Jesus Christ.

Act 2:46-47 (KJV) And they, continuing daily with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, did eat their meat with gladness and singleness of heart, Praising God, and having favor with all the people. And the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved.

No where in the New Testament does the Bible state that we must only worship God one day a week. The examples we are given is that our brothers and sisters in Christ met daily. They met everyday of every week, not just one day a week. They didn't just go into a specific house of worship, but considered everywhere they were worshipped a house of worship because God inhabited them.

In today's busy lifestyle a lot of Christians have a hard time meeting together more than once on Sunday, leastwise more than one day a week. But sometimes we have to set aside the things of this world. Sometimes we have to have faith that our Lord will provide and clear the way.

Today's "instant gratification", and "hurry, hurry world" dictate that we need to rush around doing everything we can. Everything, that is, until it comes to worshipping our Lord.

We tend to think of God and church as things we do in between the other stuff, but we've got it backwards. All that other stuff should come after worshipping Him. We give to Him first and foremost. We serve Him first and foremost. Then, anything we have left we can use to do those other things.

Yet, we clearly see that worshipping God was never intended to be a one day or two day a week thing, but a daily thing. Daily preaching His gospel, daily worshipping Him in song and prayers, daily honoring Him with our actions, our speech, and our thoughts.

Let's get back to the early church habit of worshipping Him everyday, not just Sunday.

In His love,
Christopher Dale